

Los Molinos High School Recognizing Appropriate Student Behavior

For 2020-2021, Los Molinos High students who embody and exhibit Bulldog PRIDE behavior expectations will be recognized via verbal reinforcement as well as the systems we have put in place below. All students will learn about our behavior recognition systems (how they work) at the beginning of the school year, and mid-year transferred in students are oriented to these systems by PBIS team student representatives.

Bulldog PAWS Dollars and Buy-Back Days

Our behavior recognition token system is the Bulldog PAW Dollar. Every staff member, teachers and non-teachers, get their photo taken by ASB Officers and placed on their very own personalized PAW Dollar. All adults on campus are encouraged to give out PAW dollars to students exhibiting the 5 Bulldog PRIDE expectations as well as the specific, measurable behaviors in our behavior expectations matrix. We encourage staff to give out high rates of positive reinforcement, 4 positives for every 1 correction.

Bulldog PAW Rewards Menu & Buy Back Days: Students may turn in their PAW dollars for rewards items on the PAW Menu posted near the school office hallway. PBIS team staff member stocks, organizes, and mans “Buy Back Days” on the first Friday of every month. Example Menu (These are just ideas):

How we Ensure Rewards are Meaningful: Bulldog PAW Dollars are made most meaningful by getting annual student feedback on the rewards. PBIS/ASB student team members will conduct a random sample survey of students and adjusted the PAW Menu of Rewards based on student feedback and administrative budget.

Everyday Heroes: Peer-to-Peer Recognition System

Students are encouraged to nominate peers to exemplify PRIDE behaviors by filling out an Everyday Hero nomination form and placing in the Everyday Hero box. The forms and nomination box will be located inside Karla's office near the Learning Center Room.

Sharing Results Back: Student Everyday Hero nominations are periodically replaced and added to the glass case located in the hall way adjacent to the school office. Staff Everyday Hero nominations are displayed/shared in the teacher's lounge.

Marketing to Students: Bulldog PAW Print blurbs, school website, daily announcements, and Posters.
